Easy English Version

Lead•Engage•Activate•Drive

Are you a woman with disability?

Are you a girl with disability?

Do you live in Australia?

Yes?

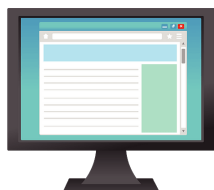

We want to hear from you!

We are Women With Disabilities Australia. We will write WWDA to talk about us.

WWDA has a new blog. The blog is on our website.

A blog is webpage where people share stories about an issue.

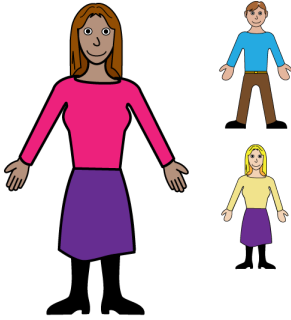

Our blog is about

- women and girls with disability
- who are leaders.

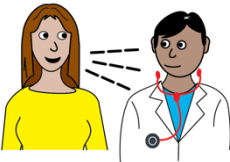

Tell us your stories about being a leader. We will put them on the blog.

Being a leader looks different for everyone. Your story can be about:

- a new job

- speaking up for yourself

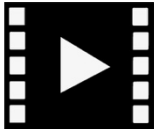

- going to a big event.

You can tell us your story using:

- words

- video

- sound

- pictures.

Send your story to WWDA by email.

Email project@wwda.org.au.

We will pay you $100 for your story.

We can pay you in 2 ways:

- with a $100 gift card to a shop.
- by invoice if you have ABN.

An ABN is an Australian Business Number.

An invoice is a document with information about money that needs to be paid to a person or organisation.
